

- Write C if the underlined noun is a common noun.
Write P if the underlined noun is a proper noun.

- _____ 1. Henry Ford began manufacturing cars around 1900.
- _____ 2. His Model T was the most popular car in the early part of the twentieth century.
- _____ 3. His factory was the first company in America to use assembly line production.
- _____ 4. Each worker built only one part of the car.
- _____ 5. Before this time every worker built an entire car by himself!

- Write S if the underlined noun is a simple subject, OP if it is the object of a preposition, and DO if it is a direct object.

- _____ 6. Before the invention of the assembly line, cars were very expensive.
- _____ 7. Most Americans could not afford to own one.
- _____ 8. Because cars were built faster with an assembly line, factories could increase production.
- _____ 9. With more available cars, the cost of owning an automobile decreased.
- _____ 10. By the mid-1920s many American families were the proud owners of this new form of transportation.
- _____ 11. A great idea had changed life in the United States forever!

- Underline the nouns in each sentence. Remember to look for compound nouns.

12. Most Americans own a car. (2 nouns)
13. Many families have two cars or trucks. (3 nouns)
14. After the invention of the automobile, the United States became a mobile society. (4 nouns)
15. Americans depend upon cars for transportation to their jobs instead of using public transportation. (5 nouns)
16. Many families live in different regions of the country, and they use cars to visit their relatives. (5 nouns)
17. Interstate highways were built because Americans wanted a faster way to travel to places. (4 nouns)