National Society Daughters of the American Revolution AMERICAN HISTORY ESSAY CONTEST 2014–2015

(This information is for chapter and school use)

monta
TOPIC:	Topic for 2014-2015: The year 2015 marks the 125th anniversary of Ellis Island as an immigration station. On a typical day, immigrants arriving on the island could expect to spend up to seven hours in processing activities intended to determine whether or not they were legally and medically fit to enter the United States. Imagine yourself as a child traveling through Ellis Island in 1892. How would you describe your experience to your cousin who has never heard of Ellis Island?
PARTICIPANTS:	All grade 5, 6, 7, and 8 students in a public, private, or parochial school, or those who are hon schoolers, are eligible. This contest is conducted without regard to race, religion, sex, or national origin. D
	NOT SUBMIT A STUDENT PHOTOGRAPH WITH ENTRY.
LENGTH:	Grade 5: 300-600 words
FORM:	Essay is to be handwritten in black ink, typed, or prepared on a computer or word processor, using black type rokwi.	in a non-script font no smaller than 12 point or larger than 14 point. A limited vision student may use Braille, a tape recorder, or very large type. A written transcript must be included, as well as a teacher's or physician's letter attesting to the student's special need.
	All of the essay must be the student's original work.
	Each essay must have a title page listing the following:
	Title of Essay: "A Child's Journey Through Ellis Island"
	(A subtitle is permitted if written below the topic.)
	Contestant's full name and address. (street, rural route, PO Box, city, state, zip code) Note: If the school's regulations prohibit providing the student contact information, then school contact information may be substituted.
	Contestant's phone number (with area code) and e-mail address, if available
	Name of contestant's school with grade level indicated
	Name of sponsoring DAR chapter
	Number of words in essay BIBLIOGRAPHY:	Essay must have a bibliography listing all references utilized. Internet resources, if used, should be cited in similar format to that used for printed resources. Add the electronic address used to access the document as supplementary information.
	Any essay with information copied directly from sources without using quotes will be disqualified.
JUDGING AND	Judging will be based on historical accuracy, adherence to topic, organization of material, interest,
AWARDS:	originality, spelling, grammar, punctuation, and neatness. Pictures, maps, drawings, graphics, and other such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.
AWARDS.
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.  NATIONAL: One essay in each grade is selected as the national winner. A certificate, gold pin and monetary
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.  NATIONAL: One essay in each grade is selected as the national winner. A certificate, gold pin and monetary award is presented to each national winner at Continental Congress in June 2015. Winning essays may appear
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.  NATIONAL: One essay in each grade is selected as the national winner. A certificate, gold pin and monetary award is presented to each national winner at Continental Congress in June 2015. Winning essays may appear in official DAR communications.
	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.  NATIONAL: One essay in each grade is selected as the national winner. A certificate, gold pin and monetary award is presented to each national winner at Continental Congress in June 2015. Winning essays may appear in official DAR communications.  Note: All essays must first be submitted to a local chapter. Essays sent directly to the national chair or vice
DE A DI INE.	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.  NATIONAL: One essay in each grade is selected as the national winner. A certificate, gold pin and monetary award is presented to each national winner at Continental Congress in June 2015. Winning essays may appear in official DAR communications.  Note: All essays must first be submitted to a local chapter. Essays sent directly to the national chair or vice chair of the essay contest will not be considered.
DEADLINE:	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.  NATIONAL: One essay in each grade is selected as the national winner. A certificate, gold pin and monetary award is presented to each national winner at Continental Congress in June 2015. Winning essays may appear in official DAR communications.  Note: All essays must first be submitted to a local chapter. Essays sent directly to the national chair or vice chair of the essay contest will not be considered.  Chapter chairs should determine date for students/schools to forward essays to them to allow for judging to be
DEADLINE:	such additions will not be considered in judging and should not be included.  Judging at the chapter level is by three judges, including at least one non-DAR judge.  Judging at other levels is by three judges, all of whom are non-DAR members.  CHAPTER: One essay at each grade level is selected as the chapter winner and forwarded to the state American History chair for state competition. American History essay contest chapter winner certificates and bronze medals may be presented by the chapter if desired. In addition, chapters may present certificates of participation to every student who participates in the essay contest. These supplies are available from The DAR Store.  STATE: One essay at each grade level is selected as the state winner and forwarded to the appropriate national division vice chair of American History for division competition. The state winner receives a silver medal and state winner certificate.  DIVISION: One essay in each grade is selected as the division winner and forwarded for national competition to the national vice chair. Division winners are presented a division winner certificate.  NATIONAL: One essay in each grade is selected as the national winner. A certificate, gold pin and monetary award is presented to each national winner at Continental Congress in June 2015. Winning essays may appear in official DAR communications.  Note: All essays must first be submitted to a local chapter. Essays sent directly to the national chair or vice chair of the essay contest will not be considered.

NAME AND PHONE NUMBER OF CHAPTER CONTACT PERSON
NAME OF SPONSORING DAR CHAPTER

If additional information about the contest is needed, please contact the Office of the Historian General, NSDAR, at 1776 D Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20006–5303 Phone: (202) 879–3256