

► Put parentheses around the prepositional phrases. Label the simple subject S and the action verb V. If there is a direct object, label it DO.

1. Charles Haddon Spurgeon lived during the 1800s.
2. He preached his first sermon at age fifteen.
3. Many people still read his sermons.
4. He spoke in a plain manner.
5. He had a good sense of humor.
6. Thousands of worshipers came to his services at the Metropolitan Tabernacle.
7. He founded a large orphanage.
8. His clear, direct sermons brought revival to many hearts.
9. He wrote helpful books too.
10. Many people worshiped Christ.

► Diagram Sentences 5, 7, 8, and 10.

11. Sentence 5

_____

12. Sentence 7

_____

13. Sentence 8

_____

14. Sentence 10

_____